FROM THE PULPIT LAST SUNDAY 27/04/25 Topic: Hymn SundayText: James 5:13; Psalm 100Speakers: Revd. Oyedepo, Pst Mesubi, Pst. Oyetoyan & Pst Daodu• Hymns have been and will continue to be some of the greatest Christian heritages. They are as penned from deep convictions, commitment of men and women led by the Holy Spirit.• Our rest in the Lord is underscored by Hymn 719 with all hopes fixed in his love and promise.• A sinner must cry to the Lord not to pass him/her by so they will find a sweet relief at the throne of mercy, fully trusting the merit of Jesus rather than theirs.• Christians by faith overcome unbelief and with the Saviour near as Guide, and through simple obedience, every darkness, struggle, trouble, complaint, temptation, pain, tribulation and trial is conquered (Hymn 460)• Our need of Jesus for cleansing, daily walking by his side, remaining in robes of white and permanently laying aside garments stained by sin are underscored in hymn 309.• Then there shall be showers of blessing sent from the Saviour above in fulfillment of his promise (Hymn 245)• Walking on this side we must be a people of faith, holding tight to the faith of our fathers, through which we will make it to heaven.• Hope of heaven is for those who walk the pilgrim pathway true and faithful to our God and can sing the wondrous love of Christ while here (Hymn 555) and "When We All Get to Heaven", it shall be a day of rejoicing for us all who have made it.

	OPERATION WORLD Republic of the Congo (Congo-Brazzaville) Capital: Brazzaville Catholics and Protestants account for 50.5% and 40.2% of the 3.6 million people constituting the population of the Republic of Congo respectively. Followers of Islam make up 1.3% of the population primarily due to an influx of foreign workers into the urban centres. Let us pray the Lord will break the yoke of nominalism and ask that the sleeping Church would wake up from her slumber and spread the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. We must also pray the revival of the Church in the Republic of Congo.
