FROM THE PULPIT LAST SUNDAY 20/10/24

Topic : Go In This Thy Might: Faithful Obedience
Text : Judges 6 : 25 - 35
Speaker : Engr. Gbenga Mesubi

- *Faithfulness is standing firm on your trust and obedience to God (Ps.37:3).
- *Obedience is hearing the word of God and acting on it .
- *Gideon presented himself as a living sacrifice by obeying God's instructions.
- *Have you destroyed those things that represents the altar of baal in your life that God has asked you to do?
- *God is saying you should destroy every altar of baal in your life and build new ones unto God.
- *Everything that exalts its name above the word of God in your life represents the altar of baal.
- *Some behaviors that represents altar of baal such as keeping malice, hatred, evil thoughts etc. (Matt. 12 : 35-36).
- *We can build altar in our heart to God so that whatever is coming out of our heart will be pleasing unto God.
- *We can build an altar for God by first offering and presenting our lives as a living sacrifice (Romans 12:1).
- *We can also offer sacrifice of praise and habits of prayer unto God (Hebrews 13:154).
- *We can renew our altar by praying and singing praises unto God every day.
- *Gideon obeyed God because He could hear God, therefore we must be in right standing with God so as to hear from Him.
- *We should not do the work of God grudgingly but with all our heart.
- *God speaks with a still small voice and it takes those with attentive ears to hear from God.
- *When you face your fears and challenges, you will be victorious like Gideon did, but if you run away from your challenges victory will be far from you.
- *Your faithful obedience can earn or bring glory to God.
