WELCOME TO THE HOUSE OF THE LORD

A warm hand of fellowship is extended to every worshipper. As we hear reports about our mission activities carried out in the last couple of weeks, our prayer is that we shall all feel challenged to labour more to rescue more perishing Souls. The Holy Spirit may lay a particular burden on your heart as you listen to the reports, don't hesitate to obey. May our labours of love be rewarded. In Jesus' name. Amen.

FROM THE PULPIT LAST SUNDAY 20/11/22

Topic: Hymn Sunday

Text: Ephesians 5: 14 - 20

Speaker: Revd. J. A. Oyedepo, Mr. Gbenga Okeowo, Mr. Mayowa Gidado and Dr. Kunle Balogun

*It was a time of rejoicing, making melodies, admonishing and encouraging each other in Hymns. The Hymns sang includes:

*RH 10: O Worship The King.

*RH 99: The Lord's My Shepherd

*RH 100: Pleasant Are Thy Courts Above: We are admonished as believers to fear no evil for we have not been given the spirit of timidity but soundness of mind and boldness in the face of the challenges that might surround us.

*RH 620: I've Found A Friend Who Is All To Me

*RH 421: Onward Still and Upward, Follow Evermore: In our walk with the Lord we must not remain static, when we remain static it's like going backwards.

*We must continue to lean on the Lord, receive grace day by day to keep marching forward.

*We are pilgrims here on earth we have a destination, this is not our place where we will dwell in though he keeps us here.

*RH 444: Ho My Comrades! See the signal: this hymn is a song of confidence and it gives us the imagery of Jesus leaving for a short while, promising that He will be back and it's humbling to have Him request that we would hold the forth on His behalf.

*The truth is without conflict, without contest, there cannot be victory or triumph.

*RH 299: I've a Message from the Lord, Hallelujah:

*Salvation is found in none other for there is no other name under the Heaven given unto men by which they can be saved (Acts 4:12).

*The simple act of calling on the name of Jesus can bring about salvation or newness in spite of whatever the past of an individual may look like.

*Looking unto Jesus is the simple message and for as many that look up to Him and trust in Him, He is ready to walk with them on this pilgrim journey.

*In conclusion, in whatever aspects of our lives where we are experiencing difficulties and obstacles, can we dare to look unto Jesus and receive life that comes thereby and we can speak it to our situations.
