Topic: Yet Still More Land

Text: Joshua 13: 1-6; Philippians 3: 1 – 21.

Speaker: Revd. S. O. Oladejo

- *We should learn to look back and reflect on how far God has taken us.
- *Chapel or Redemption is an immediate baby of UMCATC.
- *God followed us to acquire this land.
- *God raised men and women to accomplish great things for COR.
- *Nothing was able to stop the plan of God for His Church.
- *We are able to lay a solid foundation for the spiritual growth of the Chapel.
- *We should learn to attend House fellowship for the growth of the Chapel.
- *God brought us here (COR) to make us an example to other Churches.
- *We should be known as the light in the dark world not just as "The rich people's Chapel".
- *It is important we retain our first love and care for one another.
- *God was faithful and He is still faithful in providing all we needed as a Chapel.
- *The prayers of members have helped to quite the storms and has sharpened our sense of direction as a Chapel.
- *There is still more land to conquer for God in our Ministry of love and care
- *There is still more land to conquer for God in our Youth Ministry.
- *God has also helped us in the area of Church planting.
- *God will not move in our midst if we are doing like the world.
- *We should learn to look at the past, the present and the future as a Church.
- *We should impact the society positively and be good examples of Christ.
- *We should read the Word of God reverently.
- *We have to keep moving, to continue marching forward, for there is more land to conquer.
- *What part are you playing to ensure that COR keeps growing and expanding?
- *The future is ahead of us and God wants us to take more land for him both physically and spiritually.
- *We should return to our first love if we want to take more land for God.
