FROM THE PULPIT LAST SUNDAY 02/02/20

Topic: Standing Firm In The Faith In The Midst Of Tribulations

Text: Job 1: 1-22; Job 2: 1-10; Job 23: 1-17; John 16: 33.

Speaker: Prof. Deboye Kolawole

*The speaker emphasized that:

- *Jesus Himself said we are to face tribulation in the world, but we should be of good cheer, he has overcome the world (Jn. 16:33).
- *In all the tribulations, God is always with us just as He promised in His word.
- *The book of Job is a book that gives Christians comfort and answers most of the questions most Christians ask such as "Why always me"?
- *God has authority over everyone's life. The devil cannot touch your life without the permission of God.
- *Job was faced with several tribulations, but we are meant to understand that Job never sinned nor charged God foolishly.
- *From Chapter 2 - 37 of the book of Job, the suffering continue. It was not because Job sinned but this came as a result of the agreement between God and Satan.
- *God's grace is always sufficient for every believer to be able to face every challenge.
- *Suffering teaches us to put our total trust in God for who He is. Seek God in the midst of your pain.
- *When everything is taken away in your life, all we are left with is God and Him alone. God is enough for us. The promises of God are yeah and amen.
- *We don't need to know why we are suffering we only need to know who is in control.
- *Every suffering has expiry date, let keep looking unto God for help.
- *Some Challenges we have is not as a result of God punishing us, it is for our education and edification.
- *The main thing everyone should look up to is to have God in his life.
- *When God does not answer us immediately, it doesn't mean He did not hear us. He is always there for us.
- *In conclusion, always know that God is with you in every tribulation you face keep trusting on Him.

OPERATION WORLD

EI Salvador Capital: San Salvador

Let's Pray:

Let's Thank God for the relative religious tolerance and openness to the gospel. Let's pray that the Lord would save the people from empty religion and bring them into the knowledge of Christ. Let's pray that the Lord would raise from among few true believers labourers for the land and that a revival that would bring the people to the knowledge of Christ ravage the country.
